

THE BARGE

Gareth

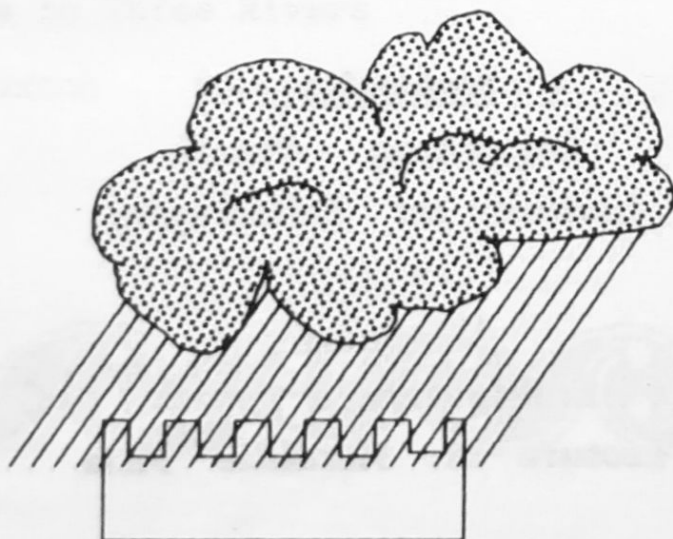

September 9, AS X111

The Boisterous Beggars Dictionary says:

Count/ Countess- someone who hasn't had the sense to come in out of the reign.

From: Dahrian Cordell (His Most Royal Majesty of The Beggars)

Starlight

The flowers love Apollo's golden fire
That glints in crystal drops of morning dew
They grow as Phoebus' horses draw him higher
And fold again as evening falls anew
The owls come out when Luna shows her face and darkling hills and fields are where they fly
In search of prey the mighty hunters chase
And kill and feed until dawn pinks the sky
But there's a light more lustrous than the Moon and fairer than the golden light of day
And though it's not as warm as smiling Noon
it's cooler glow still lights the lover's way
Starlight pale that falls like silv'ry rain
And leads my love into my arms again.

From the Treasurer

Unto the populace of the Barony, Greetings from the Treasurer!

Elsewhere in this issue you will find the Barony's financial statements for the second quarter. At next week's meeting I will take any questions anyone may have about Three Rivers' finances.

Yours in Service,

David Cooper of Tynedale

From the Chroniclers

Unto the populace of Three Rivers, comes greetings from the chroniclers.

Once again, we have a major event coming up (crown tourney), and before that event we will be having a baronial court. Again, included in the barge, for your convenience, are recommendation forms for both baronial and kingdom awards. If you intend to recommend someone, please have the forms in well in advance of the event (this allows for the making up of scrolls and/ or cords).

Since the recommendations are printed on both sides of one sheet of paper, you might find it necessary to get separate copies made.

In service to Three Rivers

Carolyn Buxton Edouard d'Aubigny
