February 24, ASXXIV (1990)
in the Barony of Three Rivers

Please come join us for the event no one thought could happen ..... the wedding of Baron Stephen Ironhand to Lady Branwynn Conmhaige. The day's events should prove to be fun for all. We will be having several competitions in honor of Baron Stephen and Lady Branwynn: First, a demobison in any medium. If there are those who don't know about Baron Stephen's favorite beast, please ask. We are sure he will be glad to give a description. Second, there will be a cartography competition showing the way from anywhere in the Kingdom to Baron Stephen and Lady Branwynn's home. Then there will be a bardic competition in the style of Lady Branwynn. If you have never heard her tell a story, please ask her to give you a rendition. It will be one you will never forget. And last but not least in this list of competitions, is an embroidery contest in any style. This is to commemorate Lady Branwynn's love of this particular art.

For the fighters out there, we have two, count them, two tourneys. The first is just your plain old every day single elimination tourney for those who don't like STRANGE tourneys. For those who do, there is a two ring, two man tag team tourney. Details will be explained the day of the event.

After the various tourneys and competitions, we ask you to join us for the most joyous and strange occasion of the wedding of Stephen and Branwynn. The strangeness ends at feast time. Sir Nathan Adalaar is preparing a period 14th Century feast appropriate to a nobleman's late winter wedding, complete with marvelous subtleties between courses. There will be plenty of tasty foods -- mostly simple, some exotic. Bring a bowl, a trencher and an appetite.
