A Letter from the Baronage

U nto the members of our Wonderful Barony do we, Dagny and Gwynneth, during this first significant snowfall of the new year, send greetings.

So much has happened since our investiture at 1381: A Peasants Revolt in late October. We thank all the past Baronages present for their warm welcomes and support. Your continuing advice has helped us feel more confident in our new roles with each passing week.

honor to sit beside Their Royal Majesties as They recognized two of our own: Kajsa, elevated to the Order of the Pelican, and Tamar, now a Companion of the Calon Cross. Finally, we attended our first ever Kris Kinder. Wow! What a full day of shopping, shenanigans, and well-deserved elevations and recognitions. We wish our Cousins of Forgotten Seas, Baron Kendall and Baroness Alianora, contentment in their approaching and well-earned retirement!

Baroness Gwynneth and I traveled to the Barony of Grey Niche in the Kingdom of Gleann Abhann at the end of October for their Samhain event. We met with our Cousin, Baron Ulrich, watched a considerable number of tournaments, and renewed friendships from our early days in the Society. We then attended Fall Crown in the fair Barony of Vatavia, and Baroness Gwynneth put on her List Minister hat for an extensive list of combatants and their consorts. It was a morning and afternoon of unforgettable chivalry and athleticism. The following weekend, we attended Toys for Tots where our illustrious Barony once again claimed the prize for most toys given by a group. Well done! We are most proud of Three Rivers' generosity.

Winter Court in December was phenomenal! Our thanks again to the event stewards, Anzoy Diogenus and Eyvinder Friedrichson. It was truly our first Court, and we were honored to be able recognize and reward the challenging work, the talent, and the bounty of our Barony. It was also an

As we prepare to host our Kingdom in celebration of its newest Crowns, it is also the time we repair, rest, and plan for the spring and summer. We look forward to watching steel and rattan fighters prepare for war season and we are excited about the Arts & Sciences classes on the schedule for the coming weeks.

We would ask the members of the Barony to think ahead to Lillies War and consider putting in a bid for the Friday evening Baronial party.

And, in closing, we would like to ask you to please remember that you can use the Baronial Award Recommendation form available on our website to bring those folks you see doing good things in the Barony to our attention. We want to see everyone recognized for their contributions to our beloved Three Rivers' word fame!

Ever in service,
Dagny & Gwynneth
~ We lift as we rise.
