A Letter from the Baronage

Happy Spring, Barony Family!
We are so happy to see all of you coming to our weekly meetings, especially now that we can spend time outside together!

We send sincere congratulations to the new Heirs of our Kingdom, Princess Kolfinna and Prince Emerick! King Orren says He is glad that They have "kids" to take over if His "vapors" overcome Him. ::wink, wink:: We were very proud of the prowess shown by our Barony fighters, HL Lumière, who went to the semi-finals from the Primary list, and Sir Roger, who was a finalist in the Tournament. Huzzah, you two!

His Lordship Yngvarr and We are still looking for a Coordinator for our new venture, the Lilies All-Baronies Friday Night Party. We will have assistance with set-up, clean-up, food donations, and serving, from the Kingdom's baronies but they have asked us to take Lead in coordinating the process.

We are pleased to announce that this year's Birthday Bash will be held on July 19th in Jefferson Barracks Park at the Gold Star Picnic Shelter. It will be a potluck type picnic day. The Barony will provide hotdogs with fixings, and your Baronesses will bring the Birthday Cake! A Baronial Court in the afternoon will celebrate our amazing populace!

And, in that vein - please tell us about folks you think deserve our recognition for their artistry, service, martial prowess, or general cool-beanness! There is a form on our website that you can fill out, or you can email us, hand us a note, or whisper in our ear!

We are, as always, yours in Service,
Dagny & Gwynneth
~ We lift as we rise.
