A Letter from the Baronage

Greetings, fair Barony!

Happy spring (finally...we hope)! The continued growth of our beloved Barony is inspiring. We are always so glad to see folks each week, both new and returning.

Chieftains, as we have said many times, was wonderful. So many people at such a small venue. It is a credit to the event stewards, Honorable Gallant Selene and Honorable Lord Lumiere, that chaos did not appear to reign! The variety of classes and activities kept everyone busy and happy all day. Court was a delight with many of our good people recognized for their artistry and hard work. Lord Skuli and his kitchen crew put on a delightful and delicious feast, and the entertainment between removes was beautiful. You, good people, make our jobs so very fulfilling.

We attended Gulf Wars (for Dagny, it was the first since 2012), and for us it was a delightfully sunny time since we arrived after the storms and freezing weather! Dagny roamed site with her camera (as a deputy social media officer for the War - who knew!), while Gwynneth enjoyed afternoons under the purple pavilion visiting with folks. We loved witnessing the word fame lunches after each field battle and were delighted when Honorable Gallant Selene received the General's Banner on Thursday. One of Dagny's favorite times, of course, was mint julips on the veranda while watching and photographing the rapier ravine battles! And we understand the Friday night party was rocking but we were tired from the day's activities and retired to our camp.

Now we look toward Crown Tourney on April 11. The Barony is well represented with 6 couples competing. We wish them all an honorable tournament!

We are headed southward that same weekend to represent Calontir at Gleann Abhann's Spring Coronation of Uther and Kenna.

We send encouragement to all our entrants at Queen's Prize and extend our thanks to all baronial members who are sponsoring them and others.

We are seeking a coordinator for the Lilies Friday night All Baronies party. This person will need to work with the other baronies' liaisons and the Brewers Guild. There is a distinct possibility that the BBQ competition will move to Friday, and that can be the primary food focus of the fireworks party. Please see us or the Honorable Lord Yngvarr for more information.

Finally, because the Barony is hosting Summer Coronation on July 11, Birthday Bash will be held on a Wednesday evening during a regularly scheduled meeting. There will be cake, ice cream, and a baronial court so get those award recommendations into us as soon as you can. The date will be announced as soon as it is determined.

Again, we are proud to be your Baronage and to represent you all when away from home. We are, as always -

Yours in Service,
Dagny and Gwynneth
